Gentlemen:

In order to insure timely action on various determinations and approvals required to be made by the Contracting Officer under the terms of the subject contract, it is necessary that all communications, except those involving purely technical matters, be referred directly to the Contracting Officer who has legal responsibility therefor. It is especially important that the following be referred directly to the Contracting Officer:

1. Matters affecting the Contract price.
2. Requests for extension of time.
3. Changes in the work requiring Contract amendments.
4. Payment invoices.
5. Authorization to purchase capital equipment.
6. Authorization to enter into specified subcontracts.
7. Authorization for special travel.
8. Requests for follow-up action on any matters concerning the Contract.
